

19 November 2020

Dear A2P Tenant,

The Premier Steven Marshall has announced very significant changes to the way we will need to live for the next six days to restrict the latest COVID-19 outbreak.

He announced what he called a “circuit breaker” and “a pause” to take place from midnight 18 November, to 11:59 next Tuesday night, November 24.

The changes effect most aspects of your life and we are writing to you to notify you of the changes.

We understand this is a deeply upsetting time for all South Australians, particularly those in most need and we will be here to support you during this time.

From midnight, the following facilities and activities will be closed:

- All schools (except for children of essential workers)
- Takeaway food outlets
- Aged care facilities will be locked down (no visitors except for organised end-of-life visits)
- Pubs, cafes, coffee shops, food courts
- All elective surgery
- Universities
- Open inspections
- All outdoor sport
- Factories (except those required for food or medical production)
- Holiday homes

The following restrictions will also be in place:

- People must stay at home unless visiting the supermarket (except essential service workers)
- No exercise outside the home
- 1 person per household per day may leave to purchase groceries
- No regional travel
- No weddings or funerals to take place
- No construction to take place
- Fly-in, fly-out workers on standby

The following essential services can remain open:

- Supermarkets – One person from your household will be able to visit a supermarket, once a day.
- Medical facilities (including mental health services)
- Petrol stations
- Public transport
- Some government services

These other services can remain open:

- Water, power and telecommunication services
- Airports and essential freight services
- Post offices and banking institutions
- Mining and smelting operations, and factories that must be maintained
- Childcare facilities for families of essential workers
- Veterinary services
- Essential agricultural services

The Government also announced masks are encouraged to be worn outdoors but it has been recognised people may need assistance in getting a mask.

As your landlord, we will be cancelling all services involving tenants moving in and out and non-essential maintenance. A2P will continue to respond to any emergency home maintenance

Our office will be closed to the public and tenants. However, we will be available for contact in the usual way by phoning (08) 8274 6300 and by emailing info@access2place.com.au

Interpreter services will remain open online for more information visit:

We urge you to follow www.covid-19.sa.gov.au/response for updates between now and Tuesday.

Finally, remember to practice social distancing, follow hygiene rules and get tested if you have any of the symptoms of COVID-19. <https://www.covid-19.sa.gov.au/health-advice/expanded-covid-19-testing>

Stay safe, stay well.

Regards,

The Access 2 Place Team
